“Throw a dart at a list of Fidelity funds and you’ll almost certainly get a well-run fund!”¹ — Morningstar

Fidelity money managers have a passion for research and more than 50 years of successful money management behind them. They’re also backed by an experienced team of analysts whose passion matches their own.

Don't just take our word for it. Morningstar, one of the most prominent evaluative forces in the industry, has observed that despite current market conditions, Fidelity has achieved extraordinary strength across investment disciplines. Here's what Morningstar is saying about a few of their “Fidelity Fund Favorites.”

★★★★★ Fidelity Dividend Growth “Since 1997, the fund has outpaced the S&P® by an average of more than four percent per year. ...this remains one of our favorite large blend funds.”

★★★★★ Fidelity Contrafund® “Fidelity Contrafund’s manager has shown an exceptional ability to make his bets pay.”

★★★★★ Fidelity Diversified International “This fund has over time put up one of the best risk/return profiles in the foreign stock category.”

★★★★★ Fidelity Small Cap Stock Fund “This fund has typically held less in technology than the average small-growth fund; it is generally better diversified than most of its peers.”

★★★★★ Fidelity Spartan Investment Grade Bond Fund “Over a six-year period, this fund has never finished an annual period below its category medium.”
