² Fidelity Manages three 529 plans, all open to residents of any state. The UNIQUE College Investing Plan, U.FundSM College Investing Plan, and Delaware College Investment Plan are offered by the State of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Educational Financing Authority, and State of Delaware, respectively and managed by Fidelity Investments. If you are not a New Hampshire, Massachusetts, or Delaware resident, you may want to investigate whether your state offers its residents a Plan with alternate tax advantages.
